Subject: - Final call for reporting to the trade for academic activities.

The classwork for the academic session 2023-2024-2025 had started from 04/09/2023. However, it has been observed that the following candidates have not reported to their trades so far. Now, through the medium of the notice, they are given final opportunity to report within one day from the date of dispatch of this notice along with the written justification of their absence from the trades. In case they don't report in the stipulated time, their admission stands cancelled and their names struck off from the admission lists. The undersigned will replace these slots from waiting list of the admission list, after which they will have no claim.
